Inside the Peace Corps: One Person's Perspective

Are you looking for a way to expand your life in ways you never thought possible? Thought about living overseas or how rewarding it would be to help people less fortunate? Do you want to know what the Peace Corps is all about?

Join recently returned Peace Corps Volunteer (and our newest library clerk) Kim Brokling on Thursday, October 13th at 6:30 pm.

Kim will share stories and pictures from her recent experience in Ghana. Hear first-hand what Peace Corps service is really like, ask questions, and learn how to construct a competitive application and ensure your entry into "The toughest job you'll ever love."

Fall into a Routine of Reading with our Children's Programs

Fall is back-to-school time for the older kids but what to do with the little ones? Bring them to the library and start them on a routine of reading!

Every Tuesday and Thursday we have story time for preschoolers, ages from 0 to 5 are welcome. Join us at 10 am in Pinedale (10:30 am Thursdays in Big Piney) for books, puppets, music and just plain old reading fun.

Themes will include fall, animals, monsters (the good kind) and many others! Contact Nancy in the Pinedale children's room, (nmcdaniel@sublettecountylibrary.org) or Colleen in the Big Piney children's room (cmoran@sublettecountylibrary.org) for more info. Or check out our photo gallery of past story times on our website, www.sublettecountylibrary.org/KidsGallery.htm

Story time is an excellent way to socialize your infant or toddler and help them develop a lifelong love of reading.

WY Libraries Snapshot Day is Coming!

On Tuesday, October 11th, we want to collect your stories, photos and videos for Wyoming Libraries Snapshot Day. Why? To show the tremendous impact that the state's libraries have on Wyoming residents every single day. So come to the library for the reasons you usually do, smile for the camera, and don't be shy about telling us why you love your library so much!
