Create Holiday Memories at the Library

Kick Off Your Holiday with Bryan Ragsdale

He accompanied the 2010 Capitol Christmas Tree to Pinedale and now Wyoming singer/songwriter Bryan Ragsdale will be returning to the library for these special children events:

Tuesday, November 30th:

10 am

Story Time for preschoolers in the Lovatt Room

6:30 pm

Community Pajama Party Story Time for adults and children of all ages

Bryan was chosen by the office of Wyoming Senator John Barasso to compose original music in celebration of Wyoming providing the nation's tree. As part of this project, Bryan toured schools throughout the state and composed songs with students for a special Christmas CD that is only being released statewide.

The Great American Musical

Judy Garland, Doris Day, Frank Sinatra...enjoy old Hollywood and American popular music at its finest during a four-week series of classic American musicals. Refreshments will be available; it's a jovial way to close up the weekend.

Before the show there will be an opportunity for local singers to perform—piano accompaniment is available. Call the library for more information about performing: 367-4114.

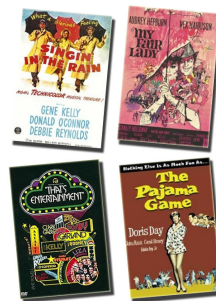

Sundays in January at 7 pm in the Lovatt Room:

January 2: That's Entertainment!

January 9: Singing in the Rain

January 16: Pajama Game

January 23: My Fair Lady

Calling for pictures

We are looking for pictures of the new Lovatt Room when decorated. If you were involved with a wedding or other event that took place in the new Lovatt Room when it was decorated especially nicely, please let us know. We would like to put together a binder of decorating ideas to share.
